

Modern Slavery Policy

1. Harrison Holgate is committed to eliminating modern slavery, human trafficking, forced labour, and similar human rights abuses.
2. Harrison Holgate is committed to ensuring that its staff and any workers it supplies (directly or indirectly) are not subject to behaviour or threats that may amount to modern slavery, human trafficking, forced labour, and similar human rights abuses.
3. Harrison Holgate provides appropriate training and awareness information for all of its staff. In particular:
 - Our leadership team receive detailed training in identifying and resolving concerns around modern slavery and human trafficking.
 - Our recruiters undertake training courses that include guidance around modern slavery and human trafficking, as well as other wider human rights issues.
 - All of our staff receive awareness-raising information around issues involving modern slavery and human trafficking, so that they can bring any concerns they have to the attention of management.
4. Any staff, workers or other parties are strongly encouraged to report any concerns or suspicions that they might have to Matthew Waters, Managing Director.
5. Reports surrounding these issues are taken extremely seriously by our board of directors, who are committed to ensuring that all investigations shall be prompt and effective. If our investigations reveal any issues, we are committed to taking appropriate action, including but not limited to:
 - Working with the appropriate organisations to improve standards,
 - Passing details to appropriate law enforcement bodies.
6. We regularly monitor our risks in this area through the use of relevant key performance indicators, including:
 - The percentage of suppliers who sign up to an appropriate code / provide their own modern slavery statements,
 - The level of modern slavery training and awareness amongst our staff.
7. As part of our efforts in this area, we publish a modern slavery statement on an annual basis.
8. We would also recommend reading this in conjunction with our other policies, including our:
 - Corporate social responsibility policy,
 - Ethical procurement policy,
 - Anti-bribery / corruption policy, and
 - Whistle-blowing policy.

This policy was adopted on 2nd January 2017 after being agreed by our board of directors. It is reviewed annually.

1 Our Business

The Holgate Partnership, trading as Harrison Holgate is a limited company operating in the recruitment sector. We provide introduction services and supply temporary workers in the insurance and reinsurance sectors.

Harrison Holgate is a trading name of The Holgate Partnership Limited, an independent business.

1.1 Who we work with

All of the hirers that we work with, and all of the work-seekers we provide, are known to and identified by our staff. All of the temporary workers we supply are identified by our staff. Some of these work-seekers operate through their own limited companies. Some of our work-seekers are supplied via other businesses, who facilitate providing them to the eventual hiring company.

The hiring companies that we work with are located in the UK. The work seekers/workers we supply live in the UK.

1.2 Other relationships

As part of our business, we also work with the following organisations:

- the Recruitment and Employment Confederation (www.rec.uk.com)

2 Our Policies

Harrison Holgate has a modern slavery policy.

In addition, Harrison Holgate has the following policies which incorporate ethical standards for our staff.

- Anti-bribery and corruption
- Equal Opportunities and Diversity

2.1 Policy development and review

Harrison Holgate's policies are established by our directors, based on advice from HR professionals, industry best practice and legal advice, and in consultation with our consultants. We review our policies annually, or as needed to adapt to changes.

3 Our Processes for Managing Risk

In order to assess the risk of modern slavery, we use the following processes with our suppliers:

- When engaging with suppliers, we ask for evidence of their processes and policies, including commitments around modern slavery, human trafficking, forced labour, human rights, and whistle-blowing.
- We review the potential for risk at regular intervals, including the possibility of re-auditing a supplier or conducting spot checks.

After due consideration, we have not identified any significant risks of modern slavery, forced labour, or human trafficking in our supply chain. However, we continue to be alert to the potential for problems.

Additionally, we have taken the following steps to minimise the possibility of any problems:

- We reserve the right to conduct spot-checks of the businesses who supply us, in order to investigate any complaints.
- We require the businesses we work with to publish a modern slavery statement.
- We collaborate with our suppliers in order to improve standards and transparency across our supply chain.
- Only senior members of staff who have undergone appropriate training for assessing modern slavery risks in the supply chain are authorised to sign contracts and establish commercial relationships in any area where we have identified the potential for risk.
- We ensure that all of our suppliers are members of appropriate industry bodies and working groups.

Our staff are encouraged to bring any concerns they have to the attention of management.

4 Our Performance

As part of monitoring the performance of Harrison Holgate, we track the following general key performance indicators:

- The speed with which we investigate related complaints, and the effectiveness of any whistle-blowing procedures, and/or

Based on the potential risks we have identified, we have also established the following key performance indicators, which are regularly assessed by our board of directors:

- the percentage of suppliers who sign up to an appropriate code / provide their own modern slavery statements
- the level of modern slavery training and awareness amongst our staff

Harrison Holgate

We carefully consider our indicators, in order to ensure that we do not put undue pressure on our suppliers that might increase the potential for risk.

5 Our Training

All of our staff receive training and support that is appropriate to their role. In particular:

- Our leadership team receive detailed training in identifying and resolving concerns around modern slavery and human trafficking.
- Our recruiters undertake training courses that include guidance around modern slavery and human trafficking, as well as other wider human rights issues.
- All of our staff receive awareness-raising information around issues involving modern slavery and human trafficking, so that they can bring any concerns they have to the attention of management.

As part of this, our staff are encouraged to discuss any concerns that they have.

Training is refreshed annually.
